

Compensation Landscape

Alonos[®]

We partner with you to design incentives that drive business performance. Leverage all the components that you have available to drive performance, improve employee retention, and reduce attrition.

www.alonos.com
information@alonos.com

This graphic is intended to provide a snapshot of the compensation landscape and the various components that are commonly used for compensation. One can view this as the total rewards landscape. The placement of a component on the chart represents where that component is commonly used, not the only place that it can be used.

Copyright Notice: Alonos authorizes reproduction rights to the public for this document; however, the document must be reproduced in its original size and in color; you may not alter it in any way.